Learning Opportunity

Join us for a week of daily, live, interactions with Elders and Knowledge Keepers from across the various treaty areas of Alberta, to honor Orange Shirt Day 2023.

Our daily events support reconciliation and healing from the legacy of the residential schooling system through honor and showcase the revitalization of Indigenous language and culture through dance, sport, music , visual arts and language

Teachers, and their classes, are invited to register for a single day event or all events for the week. All registered participants will receive a link to the recording that can be shared with students at any day or time that is convenient to your classroom schedule.
